

The Winners

The winners is a competition that occurs at the end of each academic year to entertain students. Also, it is a cultural based competition, where students challenge their knowledge of civilization, literature, vocabulary, myths... etc in groups of 3 students and before a jury that carefully chooses the questions to fit all levels.

It is a diverting cultivating experience for both, competitors and audience.

There will be 8 groups consist of three students who will choose randomly a subject and a jury member will ask them a question related to it. Each round 2 groups will be out; the first award will be for the last remaining winner group. After each round, there will be a musical pause.

Eligibility: The competition is open to all English students. It includes 8 groups. Each group consists ONLY of 3 participants. You can form your own team or simply join another existing one. You need to register to the competition before the 25th of April 2017.

Awards: The jury awards the final TWO remaining groups.

Interesting awards are waiting for you.

The competition will take place in "Mr. Najib Fadhlaoui's Amphitheatre" on Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at 13:30.
